

Outdoor Team-Building Training

AN EXPERIENTIAL APPROACH TO DEVELOPING SOFT SKILLS FOR YOUR TEAM

How it works

Before the experience

- Preparatory meeting with team managers to set team-building objectives
- Preparations by the team for a four day and three night experience in the outdoors

During the experience

- All-inclusive package including food, accommodations and outdoor equipment
- Six team building workshops, tailor-made and according to the specific objectives of managers
- Complete a four-day / three-night experience at Kenauk Nature
- Integration of outdoor activities such as canoeing, hiking and rock climbing into team building workshops, in addition to gourmet meals prepared outdoor by a chef

After the experience

- Before and after evaluations of the experience to validate the appreciation and effectiveness of the program
- Tailor-made medium-term assessments of the success of each team-building objective

Why it works

Outdoor setting

- The outdoor setting promotes comradeship through a healthy lifestyle, camp life, free socialization and contact with nature
- Outdoor activities offer a wide range of challenges and improvement opportunities. They provide a context naturally conducive to the development of healthy communication and effective teamwork
